

HAMAD PROJECT: Healthier And More Active Deaf People

The HAMAD Project is a deaf led project, which aims to inform deaf people about the benefits of a healthier and more active lifestyle.

The Project will consist of a number of presentations, workshops and activities linked to a healthier lifestyle within the deaf community.

Members of the deaf community will be able to ask questions related to a more healthy and active lifestyle.

Contact details below:

Website: www.deafs.org.uk

Email: contact@deafs.org.uk

Mobile: 07706003902 (Text Only)

LOTTERY FUNDED